NEWS UPDATES

Interested in engaging in dialogue with your peers about current social issues?

Social Justice club is hosting a series of after-school conversations based on the Living Room conversation model. A Living Room Conversation is a simple way to heal divides and facilitate connection between people despite their differences, and even identify areas of common ground and shared understanding. All are welcome! Our next conversation will be after-school on Wednesday, March 11 in room NM 207. Join us!

-----SENIORS-----

will be held Friday, June 5th, 2020 at Angel of the Winds Arena in Everett. Overwhelmingly, our students and families have indicated this choice as their preference which was gathered from family and student surveys recently sent out by the Superintendent's office.

Check out the College & Career Centers for all the local scholarships available!

Seniors: Skagit Valley College and Whatcom Community College will be here this Friday, 3/6, during all three lunches in the College and Career Center to assist you with their application process, explore their programs, and learn about financial aid. Don't miss this great opportunity.

The College and Career Center Pizza with a Professional March Events

All grade levels are welcome.

- March 17th - Rafael Lucatero, Lieutenant, with Northwest Region, Mount Vernon Enforcement Division with the WA State Liquor Enforcement and Cannabis Board
- March 31st - Cynthia M. Ruiz, Engineering Program Manager

The College and Career Center has room for a few upcoming field trips!

Permission slips are in the College and Career Center.

- College Planning Day at WWU will host all of the public (and some private universities) in Washington State. You can visit with the college of your choice on a college campus! March 23 (green day) from 8:00 - 12:45.
- Spotlight on Women in STEM is focusing on female students grades 9-12 that have an interest in STEM and healthcare careers. The line-up of speakers will be different than last year - so even if you came last year - come again! March 26 (white day) from 8:15-1:30 with lunch included. Note this is an early release day so students will need to secure a ride home if they normally take a bus.
- University of Washington Tour - this trip will focus on seniors that have been admitted and juniors that are interested in applying to UW next year. April 14 (white day) 8:00 - 2:30 with lunch included.
- WAVE Apprenticeship is a trip for students interested in learning about state union apprenticeships in the trades. Plumbing, electrical, scaffolding, crane operators, laborers and more! This is a hands-on field trip with lunch included. Spaces are very limited - first come first served! April 21 (green day) from 8:30 - 1:00.

Students that are currently enrolled in CTE classes can earn required leadership points by coming on a field trip or Pizza with a Professional.

Seniors working to complete their senior culminating project (a graduation requirement) can also apply these trips and events to the job shadow portion
