Student Parking Concern

Students, please do not park on the side streets next to campus. If you do, you could be ticketed by the police department for parking in an unauthorized area. Parking spaces are available at the old YMCA at 6th and Lawrence. Please contact Officer Reed if you have any questions, he'd be happy to help.

Prom?

It may be possible to hold prom at McIntyre Hall this year on April 16th. In order to use their facility, all students in attendance must have a negative COVID test within 48 hours of attendance from an APPROVED testing facility (NO at home tests) OR must be fully vaccinated with COVID Vaccination Card. Only votes from the junior and senior classes will be counted. Voting closes Friday, 2/11/22 @ 3pm. Visit the MVHS website to cast your vote.

Enter Your Whip in the First Annual MVHS Car Meet!

February 25th @ 4pm in the MVHS North Parking Lot. Sign up via the google form. Anyone is welcome to attend, but as of right now, you must be an MVHS student or staff member to enter your vehicle in the show. No registration is required to attend the car show, only for entering your vehicle.

Schedule Changes?

Monday, February 14th is the last day to request a schedule change for second semester.

MVHS Music Dept Swag Store Opens

Our new music logo is now available for purchase in either a sweatshirt or t-shirt. Shop MVHS MUSIC

Golf Anyone?

If you are interested in golfing for the boys Bulldog Varsity or JV golf teams this spring, stop by Mr. Wolffis' room for information. He is on the Main Campus in NM 208 on white days and in room 303 at Lincoln on green days. Be sure to have all your eligibility stuff taken care of through the athletic office and that you are on our Final Forms list.
