WEEKLY WELLNESS TIPS

From your MVHS Counseling Team

Hygge is the Danish tradition of taking time for the daily rush to be with people you care about or in peaceful solitude.

Alongside the hustle and bustle of the holidays, maybe you can sprinkle some pockets of hygge throughout the winter break.

Hygge focuses on using the five senses to savor a moment or an experience, appreciating the ordinary every day events of our lives.

Here are some ideas to live Hygge this Winter season: Be cozy– surround yourself with warm blankets and pillows; Nature– find ways to be outside; Gatherings– Spend time with people who support and encourage you; Simplicity– Take time throughout the day to notice small moments (smells & textures around you, smells that make you happy, etc.)
